SECTION C - PRE-ARRIVAL FACILITATION

If you are eligible for this program, you will have access to some facilitation services, including coverage for the cost of the Immigration Medical Exam and other limited medical services and products under the Interim Federal Health Program Pre-Departure Medical Services.

Please use the checkbox below to let us know if you and your accompanying family members will require the facilitation service available.

Immigration Loans Program Transportation Loan and International Organization for Migration (IOM) Travel Booking Assistance:

☐ Yes ☐ No

- If you are selected for this program, you are responsible for paying for the costs of your travel to Canada. To cover these costs, you may access a Government of Canada transportation loan by using IOM's travel booking assistance.
- The IOM charges an assistance fee of CAD $300 per person for their travel booking assistance. The assistance fee and the cost of your flight tickets will be added to your transportation loan.
- IOM's travel booking assistance includes:
  - facilitating application for exit permits (and, in some cases, application for waiving of exit fees)
  - arranging transportation and accommodations when required to appear at a government office for exit permit processing
  - assembling travel documents, including documents for transit countries and entry into Canada
  - finalizing transportation loans for clients
  - arranging transportation, accommodation and meal allowances during travel
    - o Note:
      - If your travel itinerary includes long transit times, it is your responsibility to arrange and pay for overnight accommodations and meals, if required.
  - ensuring the most direct route is taken (as far as operationally feasible), using a Canadian carrier or reliable non-Canadian carrier that has signed an agreement to provide reduced migrant fares
  - arranging an operational escort for travel when needed (when pre-approved by IRCC)
  - assisting during travel when unforeseen circumstances are encountered in transit

Pre-arrival and in Canada Settlement Services

If your application is approved, you will be eligible to receive free assistance from a third party organization that provides settlement supports to immigrants coming to Canada. This assistance includes information about living and working in Canada, an employment skills assessment and referrals to settlement services in Canada. You will be eligible to access these services prior to your departure for Canada, as well as within your community to support your settlement once you arrive in Canada. These are available at no cost to you. IRCC will contact you via e-mail after your application is processed to provide you with information on how to access these services.

Once in Canada, you will also be eligible for a one-time payment of financial assistance to help support your immediate settlement and integration needs. You will need a Canadian bank account in order to access these funds. Your anchor relative is required to assist you with setting this up. If your application is approved, IRCC will contact you to provide you with more information on accessing these funds.

SECTION D – CONSENT AND DECLARATION

All personal information provided on this application:

- is collected by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) under the authority of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act,
- will be used to assess and make a decision on your application for permanent residence in Canada according to the requirements of the Act
- will be used to facilitate your settlement in Canada if you are selected.

Information related to:

- your identity, including any personal information from your immigrant case file;
- your resettlement needs related to your immediate health and safety; and
- information you have provided to IRCC, including copies of supporting documents, may be shared with:
  - o the International Organization for Migration (IOM);
  - o any organization under contract or that has an information-sharing arrangement with Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) to provide services;
  - o any service providing organization that will be providing you with settlement services upon your arrival, and;
  - o provincial or territorial public health authorities in Canada, if based on the results of your Immigration Medical Exam, a condition is imposed on your admissibility to Canada.
